

NEWS RELEASE

For Immediate Release
January 15, 2009

Contact:
Karie Zellner,
Marketing & Business Development Specialist
(800) 236-2246

Schenck Business Solutions Announces New Shareholders

APPLETON, WI – Schenck Business Solutions is pleased to announce that Corey J. Kolbe, CPA, CFP, MST; Dan Koszalinski, CMA, CPA; James R. Michels, CPA; Patrick J. Ness, CPA; and Jeff Oonk, CPA, have recently been named shareholders of the organization.

Kolbe, based from the Appleton office, has a strong background in corporate and individual income tax planning and compliance for closely-held businesses. He has special emphasis in the real estate and construction industries and serves as one of the firm's leaders in these areas. Kolbe frequently speaks about tax issues at seminars and workshops for various business groups. He is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin – Whitewater and earned his Master of Science Degree in Taxation with honors from the Washington School of Law. He is a member of the Wisconsin Institute of Certified Public Accountants (WICPA), the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) and the Institute of Certified Financial Planners. Kolbe is also involved with the United Way "Promoting Health, Healing & Crisis Intervention" Impact Area as a committee member and serves as Treasurer for the Appleton Little League. He has been with Schenck since 2006.

Koszalinski's experience is centered on leading companies to improved profitability. Based from the Appleton office, he has led strategy development, structure alignment, cost management and revenue generation initiatives to improve profitability. Koszalinski has consulted with companies of all sizes in many industries, effectively working with production teams, cross functional teams and executive management teams. A graduate of the University of Wisconsin – Oshkosh, he is a member of the WICPA, the AICPA and the Institute of Management Accountants - Winnebago Chapter. Koszalinski is involved with the United Way "Strengthening Families" Impact Area and is a Habitat for Humanity volunteer. He has been with Schenck since 2000.

Michels' experience includes providing audit, accounting and tax services for clients in a variety of industries, including manufacturing, wholesale, hospitality, and distribution. In addition, he has twelve years of industry experience in various manufacturing and service industries. Michels is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin – Whitewater where he earned his Bachelors of Business Administration degree. He is a member of the WICPA and the AICPA. Michels is involved with various community organizations including Advance Green Bay Area Economic Development Board of Directors, Allouez Girls Softball and Atonement Church. He has been with Schenck since 2004 and is based from the Green Bay office.

Ness provides tax planning and consulting services for closely-held businesses in the manufacturing, wholesale, retail and service industries. Based from the Appleton office, Ness is responsible for the preparation, supervision and review of year-end and interim compilations and reviewed financial statements. Ness also has extensive experience in developing financial projections and forecasts for new and existing business ventures. He earned his Bachelor of Business Administration degree in Accounting from the University of Wisconsin – Eau Claire. Ness is a member of the WICPA and the Wisconsin Restaurant Association. He has been with Schenck since 1998.

Oonk's experience includes supervising audit and review engagements of a varied client base, including manufacturers, construction contractors, service businesses and employee benefit plans. He is skilled in projections, consolidations, manufacturing cost analyses, tax compliance and planning, valuations and employee benefit plans. Oonk is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin – Whitewater where he received his Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting. He is a member of the WICPA and the AICPA. Oonk is also involved in the Sheboygan Rotary West, Coastal Connections – Young Professionals Network of Sheboygan County and the Oostburg Kiwanis Club. He has been with Schenck since 1996 and is based from the Sheboygan office.

About Schenck Business Solutions

Schenck Business Solutions is a full-service regional accounting and consulting firm. Schenck has over 500 employees that serve businesses and individual clients through 9 locations in Wisconsin. As one of the largest CPA firms in the state and in the U.S., Schenck Business Solutions provides a full range of services including accounting and audit, tax, business consulting, information technology, retirement planning, investment and payroll solutions for businesses, governments, non-profits and individuals.

###