Schenck Business Solutions Wins Practice Innovation Award from Practical Accountant Magazine

APPLETON, WI – Schenck Business Solutions is pleased to announce it has been named a 2007 Practice Innovation Award winner by Practical Accountant magazine. The awards recognize accounting firms that take the lead in developing new or improved services and in promoting efficiency in the practice of public accounting. Schenck was honored based on its business process improvement services, which have helped clients in varied industries (including government, transportation, healthcare, and manufacturing) to trim costs. Led by Denny McCullough, CPIM, the team provides process improvement training and education in lean enterprise, value stream mapping, 5S workplace organization, cellular/flow process design, and more to organizations across Wisconsin.

Schenck Business Solutions is a full-service regional accounting and consulting firm. Schenck has over 500 employees that serve businesses and individual clients through 9 locations in Wisconsin. As one of the largest Wisconsin-based CPA firms and one of the 35 largest in the U.S., Schenck Business Solutions provides a full range of services including accounting and audit, tax, corporate finance, business consulting, information technology, payroll preparation, retirement planning, and investment management and advice for today's business, government and personal challenges.
